engaged for 14 months

How they met:

We met at a Halloween party in New York in 2006 while we were both living there.

The proposal:

Trey surprised me when I walked in the door from work on a random Tuesday evening. He got down on one knee as soon as I walked through the door and asked me to marry him. He had picked up the custom pink sapphire and diamond engagement ring a few days before and could not wait any longer to surprise me with it.

Favorite detail:

Bride: Our ceremony site was so beautiful, but also very comfortable and homey which was exactly what I wanted.
Groom: I love that Cassy's friend and bridesmaid Heather made her dress. It looked perfect on her and I know it was exactly what she wanted.

Favorite moment:

Bride: Seeing Trey at the alter while walking down the aisle through all our friends and family with my Dad.
Groom: Kissing my Bride.

Biggest challenge:

Bride: We didn't use a wedding planner, and we live in Dallas. It was difficult planning all the little details being so far away, but luckily my mom was great and everything came together perfectly!
Groom: I didn't have much to do honestly, I just had to show up!

Funniest/most embarrassing moment:

Bride: The first dance! I get very nervous when all eyes are on me. Groom: I was kind of nervous and when it was time to say my vows I was almost yelling them. It must have been pretty loud because it got some laughs out of the guests.

If you could do one thing over:

Bride: I would have taken dance lessons to make the first dance less stressful!
Groom: Nothing, it was a great day.

Advice for future Brides or Grooms:

Bride: Make sure you spend some time together right after the ceremony. Once you get to the reception, everyone wants to hug you and talk to you, so it's nice to have a moment together.
Groom: Try to relax and enjoy it.

What marriage means to you:

Bride: Marriage means we are not just a couple but a family. Groom: We love each other and can't wait to spend the rest of our lives together.
